1. In your response to prior comment 1 you indicate that the Company focuses on the total number of advertisers and its overall trend. Please confirm that in future annual reports you will include quantitative disclosure of both the total number of advertisers and average spending per advertiser (excluding Alibaba) to provide investors sufficient material information regarding the key metrics you use in evaluating your advertising business. In addition, ensure that you include a qualitative discussion of how each of the customer groups, key account and SME, impacted any material change in such metrics.

Refer to Item 5.A of Form 20-F and Part III.B of SEC Release 33-8350.
